Comprehensive Heart Failure Care WebEx Series

The “Comprehensive Heart Failure Care: From Hospital to Home” workshops have been adapted into a WebEx series. The new series will begin on March 9th and will continue to be held on the second Tuesday of each month from 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. and will cover topics on pathophysiology and assessment of heart failure, management of the patient with acutely decompensated heart failure, helping the heart failure patient develop self-care skills.

If you have question, please contact Marcy Cameron, mcameron@coqio.sdps.org, or at 303.695.3300, x3040.

Great 8+ QIO Group Teleconference Calls

These conference calls are FREE. All providers planning to attend must register for the teleconference to reserve phone lines. Due to the high volume of phone lines, each facility will be limited to one line. However, you are encouraged to invite all staff to listen to each conference!

To register, please contact Laura Mankin, CFMC, at 303-695-3300, ext. 3345 or Lmankin@coqio.sdps.org

CAH ONLY Call

Teleconference number and access code will be sent by email prior to each call date.

For questions regarding the Web-Ex content or materials, contact Beth Katzenberg, CFMC at 303.695.3300, ext. 3007 or bkatzenberg@cfmc.org.

IHI WIHI – New Audio Programs

IHI invites you to enjoy a free audio program focused on the cutting edge of health care improvement. Produced and hosted by veteran broadcast journalist, Madge Kaplan, WIHI will feature lively 60-minute discussions with international experts on the latest thinking and strategies to improve patient care. The program will be offered every other week, beginning May 7 with “Breaking the Cycle of Readmissions.”
