

Universal Precautions

1. Universal Precautions are used on the following types of residents:
  - a. All incontinent residents
  - b. Residents with catheters
  - c. Residents who have MRSA
  - d. All of the above

2. Gloves must be worn during the following procedures:
  - a. During catheter care
  - b. During feeding a resident with an wound infection
  - c. During peri-care
  - d. None of the Above
  - e. A and C only

3. The basic idea of Universal Precautions is :
  - a. Residents over 65 should all be considered infected
  - b. All blood and certain body fluids have a high potential for infection
  - c. All blood and body fluids should be considered infected
  - d. None of the above

4. The following equipment should be worn when there is a high potential for the caregiver to be splashed with body fluids containing blood:
  - a. Gloves and apron
  - b. Gloves, apron, and mask
  - c. Goggles, gloves, apron and mask
  - d. Gloves and mask

5. The C.N.A's role in the Infection Control Program includes:
  - a. Reporting the lack of supplies to carry out UP to the charge nurse
  - b. Being responsible in following all policies correctly
  - c. Helping new staff understand Infection Control practices
  - d. None of the Above
  - e. All of the Above